FOREWORD

The common law of England was styled by Blackstone lex non scripta, being that portion of the law which was based on immemorial usage and universal reception as distinguished from lex scripta, the written or statute law. The only method of proving that the common or unwritten law exists is by showing that it has always been the custom to observe it. Obviously laws which depend for their authority on tradition or which are communicated from former ages to the present solely by word of mouth, never can be entirely definite or stationary; and so we see the truth of the statement that "the present common law of England is as dissimilar from that of Edward III. as is the present state of society." The same principle applies to the history of nations. A large part of that which we call history is made up of hearsay statements, more or less colored by the bias or prejudice of the writer. Hence the historic records of a state or nation find their most permanent as well as their most accurate expression in its statutes or written laws. By reference to the statutes of a nation we are able to trace with exactness the spirit, purposes and ideals which underlie its action as well as to ascertain the state of intelligence, learning and accomplishments of its people. The laws passed by the English Colonies in America are most instructive to us as showing the sources from which much of our present statutory law is derived. A comparison of their development in the several Colonies well repays the student of our institutions. Unfortunately the collections of such material are comparatively few in number and difficult of access to the student of this branch of our history.

The Honorable Nicholas Trott, Chief Justice of South Carolina, formed, about 1715, the first collection of American colonial statutory law. He describes the books in his collection in the preface to his work on Ecclesiastical Laws. By comparison with the well known collection made by Mr. Charles R. Hildeburn for Charlemagne Tower and now in the Pennsylvania Historical Society's library in Philadelphia, the first collection seems rather meagre. As time goes on collections of the original issues of works of this character become more and more difficult to form, on account of the relatively small number of copies of any particular book that was issued. For example, the collections of the Sessional issues in all the public libraries taken together do not comprise a complete original run or set of New York Colonial statutes. In forming the collection described in this catalogue, naturally the statute laws of my own state and city, in the colonial and constitutional periods, presented the most attractive field of research; hence the New York section of this collection contains items of greater rarity than will be found in respect of most of the other Colonies, although of the latter there are many scarce items.

RÉSUMÉ OF JUDGE RUSSELL BENEDICT'S COLLECTION OF ACTS AND LAWS

THE Collection of Laws belonging to Judge Russell Benedict, to be offered at Unrestricted Public Sale by the American Art Association, on the afternoon and evening of February 27th, 1922, is the Most Important Collection of its kind that has ever been brought together by a private party. Its interest centers not alone in its legal sphere, but also around the historical events of the most fascinating periods in American History.

Not only has Judge Benedict endeavored to make his Collection as complete as possible, especially in relation to the Laws of New York, but in doing so he has also striven after the finest possible copies to be obtained, with the result that he has brought together examples of many of the most important Laws of Colonial times, which are not only excessively rare and valuable, but also unique in their state.

The number of examples printed by the early New York printers, especially those by William Bradford, the first New York Printer, is remarkable in its extent, there being no less than 26 imprints by William Bradford, 16 by Hugh Gaine, 16 by James Parker, 14 by W. Weyman, 5 by John Peter Zenger, and 7 by John Holt. Among other imprints are those by Benjamin Franklin, James Franklin, Daniel Fowle, Isaac Collins, Bartholomew and Timothy Green, and other early printers of the thirteen Original Colonies, a complete list of whom will be found at the end of this résumé.

AMONG THE MORE NOTABLE NEW YORK ITEMS ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE FOLLOWING,—

Among other items of RARITY are,—Laws of New York City, printed by W. Bradford, 1731; Charter of New York City, printed by J. P. AMONG THE MORE NOTABLE ITEMS OF AMERICANA ARE THE FOLLOWING,—Smith's History of New York, First Edition, Fine Copy, 1757; Montanus's Onbekende Weereld, with view of New York, 1671; Long series of The Independent Reflector, a weekly paper edited by William Livingston, 1753; Two rare issues of Zenger's paper, The New York Weekly Journal, 1734; Original Edition of Horsmanden's Negro Plot, 1744; First Edition of Irving's History of New York; Complete set of Valentine's Manuals of New York, 1841-1866; Stokes's Iconography of Manhattan Island; Thick Paper Copy of both volumes of the Original Edition of the Federalist, one with inscription by Alexander Hamilton; Rare Broadside Proclamation by Gov. William Heath, 1776-1777; Fine Signed Document by Hugh Williamson, on the Federal Constitution, and others of importance.

NEARLY ALL THE ITEMS IN JUDGE BENEDICT'S COLLECTION ARE IN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE STATE OF PRESERVATION. MANY ARE IN UNCUT STATE, WHILE THE GREATER NUMBER SHOW UNUSUALLY WIDE MARGINS. On account of this it has been thought advisable to supplement the usual form of giving sizes by a more comprehensible method, to which end, a notation of the size of each item, in inches, is given in parentheses after the usual notation of the same.

From the standpoint of the typographical art of America during its early days, down to the early 19th century, Judge Benedict's Collection shows a remarkable array of noted names connected with the introduction of printing in America. It has therefore been thought advisable to give a list of the printers represented, which will be found on the following two pages.

AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION

MADISON SQUARE SOUTH

NEW YORK CITY

Conditions of Sale

1. Rejection of Bids. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The Buyer. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for resale the lot so in dispute.

3. Identification and Part Payment by Buyer. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

Payment at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and resold.

4. Risk After Purchase. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and thereafter neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss or any damage to any article occasioned by theft, fire, breakage or any cause.

5. Delivery of Purchases. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made at the place of sale or at the storage warehouse to which purchases may have been removed.

Deliveries at the American Art Galleries will be made only between the hours of nine a. m. and one p. m. on sales' days and on other days—except holidays, when no deliveries will be made—between the hours of nine a. m. and five p. m.

Deliveries at places of sale other than the American Art Galleries will be made only during the forenoon following the day of sale unless by special notice or arrangement to the contrary.

Deliveries at the Storage warehouse to which goods may have been sent will be made on any day other than holidays between the hours of nine and five.

Deliveries of any purchases of small articles likely to be lost or mislaid may be made at the discretion of the auctioneer during the session of the sale at which they were sold.

6. Storage in Default of Prompt Payment and Calling for Goods. Articles not paid for in full and either not called for by the purchaser or delivered upon his or her order by noon of the day following that of the sale will be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

NOTE: The limited space of the Delivery Rooms of the Association makes the above requirements necessary, and it is not alone for the benefit of the Association, but also for that of its patrons, whose goods otherwise would have to be so crowded as to be subject to damage and loss.

7. Shipping. Boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

8. Guaranty. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

9. Buying on Order. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale except that in the event of purchases consisting of one or more books for one who has not himself or through his agent been personally at the exhibition or sale, any book may be returned within ten days of the date of sale and will be refunded the purchase money therefor, if the book in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Agreement with | Seven of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina, | for the Surrender of their Title and Interest | in the Province to His Majesty. |"

COLLATION: Title, one leaf, verso blank; text, pp. 543-562.

In 1663, Charles II, in the second year after his restoration, granted the region south of Virginia and extending from 31° to 36° north latitude, and westward within these parallels across the continent, to some of his adherents to whom he was indebted for distinguished service. This region was called Carolina in the grant, and the favored noblemen were, Edward, Earl of Clarendon, George, Duke of Albermarle, William Lord Craven, John Lord Berkeley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir William Berkeley, and Sir John Colleton. An adverse claim was soon made to the same territory under a grant obtained in 1629, by Sir Robert Heath, but failing to form a colony, the claims of those to whom he had conveyed rights were set aside. Settlements were made in Carolina prior to this grant by settlers from Virginia and Massachusetts. In 1729 all of the Proprietors, except Lord Granville, surrendered their title in the soil to the Crown; and in 1744, his eighth part was set off to him. Lord Granville retained his title down to the Revolution, his after claims in the Circuit Court of the United States were not closed until the War of 1812.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

61. FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. AMERICAN REVOLUTION. Manuscript Orderly Book of Brigadier-General (later Major-General) William Heath, at Head Quarters, New York, March 31st to August 13th, 1776; and Warrants by Major-General Heath drawn on Deputy Pay-Master General Ebenezer Huntington, Peekskill, December 25th, 1776 to January 11th, 1777, and on Deputy Pay-Master General Ebenezer Hancock, Boston, March 22nd, 1777 to June 10th, 1779. 183 pages small 4to, old sheepskin. In cloth folder and blue morocco back slip-case.

HIGHLY INTERESTING UNPUBLISHED HISTORICAL MATERIAL, THE WARRANTS BEING ESPECIALLY SO, GIVING AS THEY DO, ORIGINAL DATA AS TO MONEYS PAID OUT BY THE CONTINENTAL ARMY DURING THIS CRITICAL PERIOD OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

The larger part of the Orderly Book is in the AUTOGRAPH OF GENERAL HEATH, WITH HIS AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE IN SEVERAL PLACES. The Warrants are mainly in the handwriting of General Heath's Secretary, Mr. Seth Loring, several with autograph signature of,—"Eb. Huntington, D P M Genl."

On the first page are the following notes in General Heath's autograph,—"Orders signed by Brigadier General Heath, in the City of New York during his Command in that City."

"1777, May 5th. Mr. Loring engaged as my Secretary."

"1778, May 22. This day 350,000 Dollars arrived."

The first entry begins,—"Head Quarters New York March 31st 1776. The Command of the Army at New York (for the present) being Devolved upon Brigadier General Heath, He finds himself happy in having for his Colleagues General Thompson & Lord Sterling—As the ministerial Troops have Evacuated Boston Taken Shipping and the place of their Destination uncertain, and as there is some probability that New York may be their object, the General strongly Recommends to the officers of all Ranks to Exert themselves in preparing for the most vigorous Defense should the enemy attempt a Landing in this place. . . ."

Under date of April 3rd, 1776, is a most interesting entry, ordering the seizure of "Mr. Justice Hulett" (Richard Hewlett, the famous Loyalist), his son, Lieut. Thomas Hewlett, and other active Loyalists, at Rockaway, Long Island. There is no record here as to the outcome of this attempt, but it is well known that the Hewletts were not arrested by the American troops at this or any later time.

August 13th, 1776, General Heath records his promotion to the rank of Major-General, and his transference from New York to the command of a Division at Kingsbridge.

Among the Warrants are found the names of many persons famous then or later, in the Continental Army, including,—Ebenezer Huntington, then Deputy Pay-Master General under General Heath, who later served as Lieutenant-Colonel at Yorktown, and was made a Brigadier-General by Washington when war with France threatened in 1799; Colonel Prescott, General James Clinton, Doctor John Warren, Colonel Keith, Major General Arthur St. Clair, and many other valiant officers.

The Brigade Orders are contained in the first 38 pages of the volume, the balance of the book consisting of the Warrants.

WILLIAMSON (HUGH—statesman, author of “The History of North Carolina.”) Autograph Letters, Signed, 2 pages 4to, New York, July 27, 1788. To Governor Samuel Johnston of South Carolina. Beneath the signature of Williamson is that of John Swann, one of the associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, and a son-in-law of Governor Johnston.

An interesting letter relative to the adoption of the Federal Constitution by the state of New York, reads in part,—

“ . . . we learn that on Friday 25th a Motion was made for adopting the new Constitution as recommended by the general Convention on Sept. last, this motion was carried by a majority of Five. . . . The Inhabitants of this city since the arrival of the above Intelligence have hardly been moderate in their Expressions of Joy. The State of New York had so many Arguments of private Interest that seemed to tempt her to adhere to the old form of Government that we confess the Act mentioned was rather unexpected. . . .”

FINE COPY OF THIS EXCESSIVELY RARE ISSUE, UNDOUBTEDLY PRINTED, AS STATED BY MR. ALBERT MATTHEWS, AT CAMBRIDGE IN 1672, WITH A NEW TITLE AND THE LIST OF BOOKS ADDED BY CHISWEL IN 1675.

COLLATION: List of Books "Sold also by Richard Chiswel," one leaf, recto blank; Title, one leaf, verso blank; General Laws, pp. 1-161, verso of last blank (p. 16 wrongly numbered 14); Presidents, Forms, pp. 162-170, verso of last blank, the odd page numbers for this section are on the left-hand, and the even numbers on the right-hand pages; Several Laws and Orders made at the | General Court | Holden the 15th of May | 1672. | And Printed by their Order. | Edward Rawson Secr. | pp. 6; one blank leaf; A Summary of the Laws, 27pp., verso of last blank; one blank leaf.

REFERENCES: Ford and Russell, Page 10; Tower, No. 135, where the same collation as above is given, but in a different order, the Table is also placed at 28pp.; Evans, No. 200, where the collation is given as, pp. (2), 170, (27), (2), which does not take into account the six pages of "Several Laws" in the above copy.

COPIES LOCATED: ONLY FOUR OTHER COPIES ARE KNOWN, those in the John Carter Brown, the Pennsylvania Historical Society, the American Antiquarian Society, and the British Museum Libraries.

Collation of this copy agrees with that in the Pennsylvania Historical Society, others are different.

For an extensive historical and bibliographical account of the printing of these laws, See, MR. ALBERT MATTHEWS's "Note on the 1672 Edition and the 1675 Volume of the Massachusetts Laws," where a full comparison of the two volumes is given, the copy of the 1675 issue referred to being the present one, and where the only alteration to be made is that relative to the number of lines in the "Errata" on page 170, which contains nine, as in the 1672 edition, and not ten. In this work the differences of the two issues are fully treated, and the further statement is made, that "the text and Summary of the 1675 volume were printed at Cambridge in 1672; that for some reason which cannot now be determined, it became necessary to reset in some copies the three pages numbered 168-170, and they were reset either in Cambridge or in London; that a new title-page was printed in London; and that the List of Books was printed in London."

A COPY OF MATTHEWS'S PAMPHLET ACCOMPANIES THE ABOVE COPY OF LAWS, which contains also, the armorial book-plate of William Dobyns of Lincolns-Inn.

Both Tower and Evans include in their pagination the Session for March, 1743.

This session, though included in the General Index, was printed later than the body of the work, and its inclusion in the Index shows that the latter must also have been printed after March, 1743. The session has its own caption with the royal arms, and its own colophon.

The Acts and Laws in this issue comprise the years 1692 to 1742, inclusive.

ORIGINAL ISSUE OF THE SECOND COMPILATION OF LAWS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE. The title-page is in exact photostat facsimile, as is to be expected, some of the margins are soiled.

COLLATION: Title (in photostat), one leaf, verso blank; Table, pp. iv. (this is the second issue, the first leaf is somewhat imperfect and the second has margin torn into); Acts (Original Issue), pp. 1-59, verso of last blank; blank leaf.

The "Table" is not the original, but the one printed with the Session Laws of 1718, and contains a list of the additional laws covering the same.

The last blank leaf is original. On both blank leaves are several signatures in ink, including those of, Abra. Perk, David Lawrence, Jonathan Smith, 1789, and Jonathan Norris, 1745. Laid in is the original document relative to the publication of these Laws; this is a one-page manuscript document in the autograph of Samuel Kevis, Clerk of the House of Representatives of New Hampshire, dated, May 15, 1711, relative to the appointment of a Committee to Revise the Laws.

This volume was for a long time supposed to be the first printed Laws of New Hampshire, but in 1888 a pamphlet, containing five Acts, passed at a Session in August, 1699, and printed at Boston in the same year, was discovered by Dr. George H. Moore. As the 1699 issue however contains only the Laws for the session of August for that year, it would seem that the present edition, 1716, would still have to be regarded as the first printed collection of New Hampshire Laws.

A census of the fourteen copies located shows 12 of them without the title-page.

267. NEW JERSEY. [ALEXANDER (JAMES).] A Modest Vindication of the Proceedings of the Last Assembly of New-Jersey, in their Resolves touching a separate Governour. Small folio (12 by 7), half blue crushed levant morocco, lettered up back, text smoke stained having been damaged by fire, no text missing and good margins, each leaf neatly and skilfully protected by transparent gauze, in a permanent manner.

[New York: Printed by William Bradford, 1729]

AN ITEM OF EXCESSIVE RARITY: BEING THE ONLY KNOWN COPY OF THIS EXCEEDINGLY INTERESTING HISTORICAL TRACT RELATIVE TO THE DISPUTE BETWEEN THE ASSEMBLY OF NEW JERSEY AND GOVERNOR MONTGOMERIE ON THE SUBJECT OF A SEPARATE GOVERNOR.

Inserted is a two-page Signed Autograph Document by James Alexander, dated, New York, February 19th, 1721, relative to the practice of the Court of Chancery, and the survey of some land. There is also inserted, a one-page folio manuscript document "To his Excellency Lewis Morris, Esq. Captain Generall and Governour in Chief of the province of New Jersey," being the Petition of Jos. Murray and Wm. Smith, Counsel for the Complainant in the Case of Jerokiman against Post and Speir, with a six-line Signed Autograph Note by Governor Lewis Morris, dated, July 20th, 1742, ordering the defendants to be served with a copy of this petition.

In 1720 William Burnet succeeded Hunter as Governor of New Jersey, and continued to preside over New York and New Jersey until 1727, when he was removed to the governorship of Massachusetts, being succeeded in that of New York and New Jersey by John Montgomerie, who continued in office until his death in the summer of 1731.

The death of Governor Montgomerie threw the governorship upon Lewis Morris, President of the Council, the duties of which office he assumed until the arrival of William Crosby (appointed, March 27, 1732), who continued to hold office until his death in March 10, 1736, when the duties of the office fell upon John Anderson, President of the Council. After a short period of two weeks, Anderson died, being succeeded by John Hamilton (son of Andrew Hamilton, governor in the Proprietors' time). Hamilton governed for nearly two years; during his administration there was submitted to the crown, certain "Reasons" why New Jersey and New York should each have a separate governor. These "Reasons" finally, in the summer of 1738, resulted in the arrival of a commission to Lewis Morris, as Governor of New Jersey, separate from New York. The Eleventh Assembly, at its Perth Amboy session, in the "12th of George II, 1738" was the first separate Assembly held after the appointment of the first separate Governor of New Jersey, viz. Lewis Morris, formerly Chief-Justice of New York, but removed by Governor Crosby.

John West, Lord Delaware, was appointed, as Crosby's successor, on June 20, 1737, but owing to his public activities, he never left England, and his commission was subsequently, September, 1737, revoked.

The attempt to separate the governorship of New York and New Jersey was first made in Governor Burnet's time, and renewed during the short governorship of John Montgomerie. The action of the Assembly of New Jersey on the subject of a separate governor was so unpalatable to Governor Montgomerie and his Council, that he dissolved them.

The present tract, which is a defence of the action of the Assembly, in their controversy with Gov. Montgomerie, was written by James Alexander, a lawyer, born in Scotland about 1690, who was obliged to leave England on account of his active partisanship with the pretender. He came to America in 1715, and became the first official recorder of the town of Perth Amboy, N. J., in 1718. He held many public offices, serving for several years in the Colonial legislature of New Jersey, and was attorney-general in 1721-1723, and Secretary of the Province of New York.

This tract shows no printer's name or place, but is without question the work of William Bradford.

tion of New Jersey, than anything hitherto published, comprising the Bill presented by the Proprietors, with documents relating to the same. Inserted is a copy of "The New York Gazette, revived in the Weekly Post-Boy," May 7, 1747 (inner margin torn); there are, also, four pages reprinted from the "Post Boy," containing the two Speeches of Mr. Nevill (not given by Evans in his collation of the volume).

For more than thirty years prior to the publication of this item, there had been no important controversy between the grantees of Carteret and the Elizabethtown claimants under the Indian titles, due to the abstinence of the Carteret interests from enforcing their claims. During this time, a large quantity of these interests had come into the hands of Robert H. Morris and James Alexander, who held important offices in the colony. With other large proprietors they commenced action of ejectment and suit for the recovery of quit-rent against the settlers, who immediately resorted to their Indian titles and formed an association consisting of a large portion of the inhabitants of the counties of Middlesex, Essex, Somerset and Morris. In September 1745 the Associators broke open the county goal and delivered all persons committed at suit of the Proprietors. This led to the above-mentioned Bill, calling for a "Riot-Act," which was supported by the Governor and Council, but the Assembly not only rejected the bill, but sought to give more favorable color to the offences of the Association.

The title page of the present copy contains the autograph signature of Daniel Coxe, once a member of his Majesty's Council of New Jersey, whose property was burnt and pillaged by his friends, and later confiscated by the State of New Jersey.

To this paper, which was edited by William Livingston, many noted men of the day contributed. Livingston himself wrote a series of letters in which he vigorously opposed the establishment of an American Episcopate, and the incorporation of an Episcopal College (now Columbia University). Among other contributors were Aaron Burr, John M. Scott, William Alexander (afterwards known as Lord Stirling), and William Smith.

The paper was published every Thursday. Its attacks on men in power by members of a literary society in New York City ultimately suppressed the paper.

Laid in is a one-page Autograph Document, Signed, by Daniel Horsmanden, dated, N. York, 12th April, 1768, certifying to the appointment of Philip Livingston and three others as qualified for Trustees in the Estate of Abraham De Peyster, Treasurer; also, a one-page Document, Signed, by Horsmanden, March 10, 1767, containing List of Jurors.

The work contains a Narrative of the Trials, Condemnations, Executions and Behavior of the several Criminals; the Evidence concerning the Conspiracy, and Lists of persons committed.

Horsmanden, who was one of the judges concerned in the condemnation of the negroes, wrote this book in defence of his conduct. An accidental fire in the fort, and, at the same time, a discovery of some stolen goods in the house of a negro led to a panic in which it was supposed the negroes of the city had conspired to destroy the city and kill the white people. Prosecutions and executions hastily resulted, and it was only sometime later that doubts were thrown on the whole affair.

The present copy is the one formerly owned by the Pennsylvania Historical Society, and latter by A. C. and Henry C. Berheim, with bookplates of latter two.

The note referred to above is an exceedingly interesting autograph document, signed in the handwriting of James Graham, Speaker of the Assembly, and First Recorder of the City of New York. It is dated, "Die martis—April 21, 1691," and refers to the printing of the Resolutions by the House. The action being taken the year before Bradford came to New York, it therefore does not authorize the printing of the same by Bradford, but undoubtedly Bradford acted upon this order in printing the present laws. The document reads as follows,—

"House of Representatives for ye Province of New Yorkais

"Die martis—April 21, 1691.

"Nemine Contra Duenti that Mr. Merrett Mr. Coortland Mr. Nanscayeh & Mr. Poline doe waite upon his Excellcy.—& Councill with ye Concurrence of this house to ye Publication of the Resolues of this house—agreed unto by his Excellcy. and the Councill—and y^e his Excellcy. would be Pleased to order the Publishing of them accordingly."

315. NEW YORK. SCHENECTADY DECREE: Continued.

The Complainants were Symon Groot and Jonathan Stephens. The petition of the Complainants was dismissed with costs, the following being the reasons of the council:

"WHEREUPON and upon hearing what was alledged by Council on either side that it appearing to this court that no matter of Equity is Contained in the said Complainants Bill of Complaint whereby the said Complainant ought to have the relief they pray for by their said bill. It is therefore ordered and Decreed and it is hereby ordered and decreed that the Complainants said Bill exhibited into this Court, Doe stand dismiss—And also that the said Complainants doe Pay and Satisfie unto the said Defendant such costs."

The above matter relates to the old difficulty between Ryer Schermerhorn and the Freeholders of the town of Schenectady.

The document is of unusual historical importance, as, singularly enough, it sustains the position of Schermerhorn, and as the decisions of the Council and Courts were universally against him, this document in that sense may be considered unique.

Pearson, in his valuable work, "The History of Schenectady Patent," makes no mention of, and was undoubtedly unaware of the existence of this interesting paper.

It is also signed by William Peartree, Master of Chancery and afterwards Mayor of New York City. Jos. Huddleston, Register's Deputy.

A HIGHLY IMPORTANT COLLECTION OF BRADFORD IMPRINTS.

To All whom these Presents may Concern.

HAD I not been an Eye and Ear-Witnefs of the late rash Meafures in this Province, I could not have believ'd that an Infant Colony of England, as yet sucking her Breasts, could thus have flown in her Face; or that a Body of People so distinguish'd by many Marks of Her Majesty's Grace and Favour, could be so ungrateful, as to brand Her most just and gentle Reign with the odious Name of Tyranny: For if Supporting her Government in the Manner She has directed, be Slavery, (as the angry Faction have industriously proclaimed abroad, and taught the unthinking People to echo back) the giving such Directions or Instructions, must, by undeniable Consequence, be Tyranny.

The Apprehension of the Danger that attends these Measures (for whatever my Concern may be in the Country, I have as great a one for it as any Man) has induced me to publish, in the clearest Manner I am able, the State of the Case in Dispute, between the QUEEN (for so it is) and the late Assemblies here, in order to prevent, if possible, the Next from running upon the same Rocks, and, by that Means, the Effects of Her Majesty's just Resentment for their undutiful Behaviour. And indeed there is nothing wanting but a true State of the Case, to shew the Unreasonableness and Danger of such an unnatural and impotent Struggle, the Necessity of Recanting and Remedying what is past, and to open the Eyes and Understandings of the People blinded with false Colours, and bambouled with Noise and Absurdities.

The CASE stands thus.

The Revenue being dropt in the Year 1709, Her Majesty has, by the Mouths of Her several Governors since that Time, earnestly recommended to the Assemblies here, the settling of a Revenue for the Support of her Government in this Province. The Lords Commissioners of Trade (a Body of Men consisting of all the Chief Ministers of State, with others set apart for the Care and Management of Her Majesty's Plantations) have, in their several Letters to the present Governor, affirmed, The not Settling, or deferring to settle such a Revenue, to be Obstinacy, Disrespect, and Want of Duty to Her Majesty.

The Assembly, or more properly a PARTY there, pretend, That they were ready and willing to support the Government, but the Governor had rejected their Bills for that Purpose.

In the First Place, it is obvious, That in the Course of Three Years that he has resided amongst us, and during the many (by him) interrupted Sessions of Assembly, there has not been one single Bill for that Purpose offered to him for his Assent. True it is, that several Money Bills have been sent up from the House of Representatives, to the Council, for their Concurrence, of which Number there was only One that mention'd the Support of Government; but all of them in such Terms, and clog'd with such Clauses, that the Council, without the highest breach of their Trust, their Oath and their Allegiance, could not pass them.

An Act passed by the General Assembly of the Colony of New-York in July, 1715 in the first year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, &c.

An Act Declaring that all Persons of Forreign Birth, heretofore inhabiting within this Colony, and dying seized of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall be forever hereafter deemed, taken and esteemed to have been Naturalized ; and for Naturalizing all Protestants of Forreign Birth, now inhabiting within this Colony.

WHereas by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, dated the Twelfth Day of March, in the sixteenth Year of Charles the second, the Soyl and Government of this Colony was by the said King given and granted to his then dearest Brother, James Duke of York, his Heirs and Assigns ; and among other the Powers therein and thereby given to the said Duke, it was granted, that it should and might be Lawful for the said Duke, his Heirs and Assigns, or any of them, at all and every time and times thereafter, to take, lead, carry and transport for and towards the Plantation of this Colony, not only any of the Subjects of his then Majesties Realms and Dominions, but any other strangers who would become Subjects to the said King, and live under his Allegiance.

And whereas by the Articles made on the Surrender of this Province to the Crown of England, it was among other things stipulated, That all People should continue free Denizons, and enjoy their Lands and Houses, wheresoever they were within this Colony, and dispose of them as they please,

Jacobus van Cortland & Adolph Philipse, Defendants,
In Cancellaria Novæ Eborac.

THe Decree in this Cause contains the Bill of Complaint and the Defendants Answer both at length, the Bill being 173 Sheets, and the Answer 199 Sheets, which was done because the Defendants, by their Council, insisted on having the Answer at length, and therefore the Complainants insisted, in like manner, on having their Bill at length, inserted in the Decree.

The Cause depending on the Construction of Deeds, the Court thought it proper that the Deeds should be taken in at length, in order that it might always appear whether the Construction, put upon them by the Court, be just, and that there might be no pretence of Deceit, in taking in Paragraphs which make one way, and leaving out the Paragraphs thereof which make the contrary way.

That part of the Decree which contains the material Deeds, and the Construction that the Court put upon them, is in the words following,

And this Cause then standing in Court upon Bill and Answer, the twenty eighth day of April last; was appointed by this Court for the Hearing thereof: On which Day the same coming to be heard and debated accordingly, in presence of Council learned on both sides, the substance of the Complainants Bill, and the Defendants Answer, appeared to be as herein before set forth; and the material Writings confessed, discovered and referred to; by the Defendants Answer, appeared to be in these words,

FRANCIS LOVELACE, Esq; Governour General under his Royal Highness James Duke of York, Albany, &c of all his Territories in America, To all to whom these presents shall come, Sendeth Greeting. Whereas there is a certain parcel or tract of Land within this Government, upon the Main, contained in three Necks, of which the Eastermost is bounded with a Small River, called, Mamaroneck River, being also the East bounds or limits of this Government, upon the Main, and the Westermost with the gravelly or Stony Brook or River, which makes the East Limits of the Land known by the name of Mr. Pells Purchase, having to the South the Sound, and Running Northward from the marked Trees upon the said Necks, Twenty Miles into the woods; which said parcel or tract of Land hath Alexander and Smith, Counsel for Zenger, having raised a point as to the legality of the Court, were immediately disbarred. Their Complaint to the Assembly on this Act of the Court was printed by Zenger, of which the above is a copy.

This Petition was presented to the Assembly on October 22, 1735, and reported to the Committee on Grievances. On October 24 it was ordered that a copy of the same be served on the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court within 20 days, and that the Judge make answer within 40 days.

James Alexander was elected to the Assembly in 1737. On September 16, 1731 he was prohibited from acting as Counsellor while he was a member of the Assembly.

The Complaint of James Alexander and William Smith to the Committee of the General Assembly of the Colony of New-York, &c.

Mr. Chairman ;

I T is with the utmost Regret, that we attend this Committee in the Quality of Complainants ; but the Matter of it too nearly affects us and the Liberties of this Country, to be buried in Silence. Had our personal Interests been solely concerned, we might have rested in a patient Expectation of a personal Remedy in some other Way : But when the Liberties of a Country are at Stake, and the Civil Enjoyments of a People sap'd at the very Foundation of them, it behoves every Man that loves his Country to try out and give publick Warning of the Danger. This Duty incumbent upon all, engages us in particular, to inform you, That in the Term of April last, we, in the Case of John Peter Zenger, then depending in the Supream Court, filed Exceptions to the Commissions of the Justices there : The Tenour whereof follows.

the Attorney General, }

WHEN the Colonies are struggling for their Liberties, the Publication of the following Thoughts upon a Subject of the utmost Consequence to the People, will doubtless be acceptable to all the real Sons of Freedom—Whether the Assembly's Refusal, to admit Judge Livingston, to a Seat in the House, is justifiable by Law and the Principles of our most excellent Constitution, I shall not pronounce; every Man is left to his own Judgment.—I was present when he asserted and maintained his Claim :—The Doors of this House are open to all ; and as it is now understood to be the Right of the People to inspect the Conduct of those they have sent to act for them, it follows by Consequence, that the disclosing to others what is there seen and heard, is equally the Right of every Observer. The Public may be assured, that what is now offered as the Judge's Speech, is in Substance what was really delivered by his Honour, who I hope will pardon the well-meant Design of the Publisher, since he has endeavoured to retain as far as his Memory would permit, both his Sentiments and Mode of Expression.—It may not be amiss to inform the Public, that Mr. Philip Livingston, was returned the last Sessions, for the Manor ; that he was dismissed on Account of his non-Residency, by Virtue of an old Act of Assembly, which had been disused for a great Number of Years : That after his Dismissal, a Writ was issued for a new Election ; that a few Days before the Election of Mr. Justice Livingston, (the Manor being unrepresented) a Vote passed for the Exclusion of Judges of the Supreme Court from a Seat in the House. Mr. Livingston was elected at the present Sessions, presented his Indentures, which were read ; and this Question being put by the Speaker, ' Whether it was agreeable to the House, that two Members should wait ' on one of the Commissioners appointed to qualify the Representatives to serve in the ' present General Assembly, and see Mr. Livingston qualified ? '—But, before this Question was determined, Mr. De Noyellis, moved in Words following, " I move, " that the Question be put, Whether this House will enter into examining the Propriety of the Resolution, entered on their Journals the last Sessions, against Judges " of the Supreme Court, or no ?"—He was seconded by Mr. Delancey :—The previous Question was then put,—not carried. Mr. De Noyellis' Motion being put, was carried.—After which Mr. Livingston, having obtained Leave to speak, delivered himself as follows :

M r . S P E A K E R,

WHEN I consider the Subject now to be debated before this Honourable House, merely with Respect to myself ; I consider it as a Matter almost too trifling to deserve their Notice : But when I consider it as it affects my Constituents, as it affects the Constitution,—As it affects the Privileges of every Freeholder of this Colony—I consider it as the most important Point that was ever determined by this or any

This is the ORIGINAL PRINTED ISSUE of the Grant issued by King James Second to Lord Culpepper and the Earl of Arlington, for "all the domain of land and water called virginia." Culpepper was given a Commission as Governor for Life, to take effect whenever Berkeley should vacate the office. Culpepper later purchased the interest of Arlington, but did not go to Virginia until 1680. His profligacy and rapacity finally led to the revocation of his Grant and the loss of his office.

This is the first edition of a revival of the Laws of Virginia printed in the Colony. In the Journal of the House of Burgesses, under date of February 22
1727/8, it is stated that "William Parks' petition and proposals . . . for print ing a complete body of Laws of this Colony, now in force . . . was refer'd by the Governor and Council to the Consideration of the House." The printing was not executed until 1733. This revisal contains the Laws from 1662 to 1732.

There is a manuscript record which shows that John Buckner was called before Lord Culpepper and his Council, on February 21, 1682/3, for printing the Laws for 1680; but the first authentic information of actual printing or of an established press in the Colony is that of the press established at Williamsburg in 1729 by William Parks, the printer of the above volume.

Thomas in his History of Printing in America states that "I have not seen any thing from a Virginia press earlier than 1729. Printing was not courted, and it would seem not desired, till many years after the establishment of the province."
